WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.-Court met at 10 o'clock, yesterday, His Honor Judge Mills L. Eure, presiding. The following business was disposed of:
William Jenks vs. city of Raleigh.
This case is for damages. In Sept. 1874, the plaintiff ran over a bile of 1874, the plaintiff ran over a pile of rocks in the street, in his buggy, was thrown out, sustaining an injury of the knee. He sued for $5,000 damages. He was then and is now a member of the Board of Commissioners of Wake county. The case was tried at Spring Term, 1878, then ending in a mistrial. Its testimony and remarks of counsel consumed almost all day, yesterday.

They keep Long's pre-pared chemicals, which the farmers delare are the best in the market. Their "Planters Favorite" is so in both ston & Co., and Robert F. Williams, of name and fact.

ALMOST FROZEN. - Wednesday night a negro man, who has been employed ment of the new county of Gilliam drew as a train hand, came here crazy with the august body finally sat down on no one knew where. Yesterday afternoon a negro teamster found him lying on the R. & G. Railroad track, the other side of the bridge over Crabtice, elmost stiff with cold. He was brought to the guard house in a wagon, and was then found to be senseless, speech-less, and almost over the valley. He received medical attention, and was well rubbed and warmed, but his condition is regarded as critical, as up to a late hour he had not spoken. This shows what whiskey and cold weather can do and ought to be a warning to some people whom the police find cumbering the ground almost nightly.

THE POOR -The question now is whether the Young Men's Christian Association shall be strongly supported in its blessed work of relief of the suffering poor of the city. The amount of destitution here would not be believed, ray, more, is not dreamed of, but it exists in all its horrors, nevertheless. The worst of the season is yet to come, for blustering, chilly March brings sore discomfort to the poor. The support extended this year is not so large as in time past, and though the Association has, as ever, done its utmost to prevent, there has been much suffering and may be more. It is earnes ly desired that aid be extended, in the way of money or supplies, that this state of things may be changed and much suffering prevented. By slight efforts the Association will receive such assistance in this matter as will relieve a large number of persons who are absolutely in need of care and comfort; and it is hoped that good people will see the importance of such action at forred. INTRODUCTION OF BILLS. Mr. Waldo, to incorporate Beech Swamp Agricultural Society. Mr. Graham, of Lincoln, to amend the charter of the town of Denver, Line coln county. Also, to make railroad cuts and ditches lawful fences.

Mr. Waddell, to relieve agricultural lime from the tax of $500 imposed upon fertilizers. Mr. Bryan, of Duplin, to prevent employers and agents of railroads from desecrating the Sabbath. Under a suspension of the rules, Mr. Everett called up the bill to amend and reuise the charter of the town of Winston, Forsythe county, which passed its second reading and took its place on the calendar. FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT. On motion of Mr. Scales, the rules were suspended and House bill to change the times of holding the Supes rior Courts of the Fifth Judicial Das trict, passed its several readings. STOCK LAW. Mr. Henderson moved for a suspen sion of the rules to put upon its third reading Senate bill to prevent live stock running at large in the counties of Rowan, Davie and Cabarrus. Agreed On motion of the Senators representing them, the following counties were included in the provisions of the bill Chatham, Cleaveland, Gaston, Rockingham, Surry, Yadkin, Stanley and Cabarrus.

On motion of Mr. Nicholson, under a suspension of the rules, House bill to provide a stock law for I edell county Passed its second reading. Calendar.
On motion of Mr Ormand, the bill authorizing the Commissioners of Lenoir county to levy a special tax, passed its second reading.

WESTERN RAILROAD. The special order—the bull to change Atk nson, Brown of Meckienburg, Ber- original resolution, said he did not in it of and authorize the Wester (Coalfield) Rairroad Company to con- and Lockhart. solidate with the Mount Airy Railread Company, and to complete the same, was taken up and passed its second reading.

Mr. Alexander opposed the bill. Ho considered it unwise for the State to build railroads in the present condition of the treasury. He saw no advantage to accrue to the State from this work, and thought it better to reliequish the State's interest in it and let the bond-holders go ahead and make the most of it. He decidedly objected to empowering townships and counties to issue interest-bearing bonds, as crippling the educational interests of the State, for upon the township system of taxation only could the people rely for the edu-cation of their children. He feared the present demand of this Company to be a mere entering wedge, and felt sure that the work, before completed, would cost the State some four millions of dollars.
Mr. Scales expressed his surprise at the position taken by the Senator from Mecklenburg, in view of the advantages derived by his county from rail-roads. Mr. Scales was willing to accept roads. Mr. Scales was willing to accept the offer of the Senator from Meckien-burg if he could get the Legislature to concur with him in accepting the road with the State's interest and completing the work. Mr. Scales then projected to examine the proceedings of Mr. Blocker spoke; thought it was better to act upon the report. While with the State's interest and completing the work. Mr. Scales then proceeded to examine the proceedings of the bill. This road had already cost better to act upon the report. While sympathising with the unfortunate sympathising with the unfortunate a distance of 43 miles, and of this interest the State owed eleven-four-teenths. There were judgments against the company to the amount of $50,000, under which a sale of the road was threatened in June next. Nearly all of the sum of $50,000 was money advanced by friends of the road in Fayetteville to save it from spoiliation and to rescue it from the hands of the unscrupulous into which the fortunes of war had forced it. It was proposed to ask authority to issue bonds to an amount not ex eeding $40,000 to complete the road to Greensboro, said bonds not to be used until the road shall have been graded, except to an amount of some $50,000 which the State is to be required to subscribe to pay the pressing judgments and save the road from sale. It was not proposed to pay this money out of the treasury, but to fund the little debt and save the road once more, that is to issue bonds for $50,000 to save $1,000,000. Mr. Scales dwelt at length upon the prospects of the undertaking in Yadkin valley, and appealed to the friends of the Western N. C. Railroad, who had been aided of late by the State to the amount of $850,000 to clear off its debt, and $70,-000 per annum to continue the work. Mr. Snow followed in support of the bill, occupying the ground gone over by Mr. Scales. Mr. Respass was opposed to the bill and considered the proposed subscription of $5 1000 as a gift to the road. If the road was so valuable why did its friends not raise the required sum independently of the State? While trying to commute the State debt he member, the purity and integrity of the House must be preserved.

Mr. Foard said the gentleman was before the House, and sober, and had promised to reform. He therefore moved that the resolution be passed over informally.

Mr. Colwell said it was due the dignity of the House to pass the resoluises ere this; had been given time to reform, but does not, Mr. Norment said the House was not the conservator of morals. The question is a delicate one, and we should proceed accordingly. He thought it should all be postponed indefinitely. This view was also taken by Messrs. Woodhouse, Atkinson and Jones.

Mr. Turner said the first man expelled from the House was one Potter, for snatching a stake at a card table. He had seen officials drunk, judges, legis ators. He did not think so harsh a measure as this was proper or just. Mr. Woodhouse had the first five verses of the 7th chapter of St. Matthew read as a portion of his remarks. The members applauded at the conclusion of the reading, manifesting an appreciation of the scriptures totally unexpected. The motion of Mr. Foard to pass over informally, was then adopted. Bill to incorporate the town of Spar'a. Alleghany county, passed, GILLIAM COUNTY.

On motion of Mr. Amis, the bill to establish the county of Gilliam, to be formed out of portions of Franklin, Warren and Granville, was taken up. thought it poor policy to be adding to Mr. Amis spoke to the bill, saying it gave the right to the people, by their votes, whether or not the new county should be erected. Mr. Christmas did not favor the bill.

Warren county was not in debt, the finances were wisely administered, and there was no need of any portion of it being thus lopped off.

Mr. Burroughs said the bill was opposed by a large portion of the people of Granville, who see no necessity for it. He favored the nation to table. Mr. Amis made an earnest speech in dv.cacy of the right of these people, as North Carolinians, as freemen, to have a voice in this matter.

Bili to canal Angola bay, in Pender county, by convict labor, etc. Mr. Colwell urged the importance of the work, which would prove immediately profitable to the State. Mr. Lamb also spoke of the propriety of carrying on the work, which would put 70,000 acres of fine lands, State property, upon the market. Mr. Davis, of Haywood, stated that a bill to this effect had been before passed, but some imperfection made it inperative, and favored the measure, as did Messrs. Blocker and Anderson. Bill to allow the Rabun Gap Short Line R. R. to use 50 convicts, passed

At 2 p. m. the House adjourned. EVENING SESSION. The Speaker called the House to order at 7:3) Mr. Vaughan rose to a question of personal privilege, as to an article in he papers over the signature of L. L. in it. He thought it not proper in any member to avail himself of his position to reflect upon any official individual-Mr. English introduced a resolution to annul the resolution, raying that it was calculated to cast a scor upon the officials of that department, which was not in the province of the House. Mr. Mebane, the introducer of the officials of the Department of Agriculture, but merly stated that the funds were not disbursed in the interest of the farmers. He was willing to agree to the annulling resolution, however. Messrs. Turner and Taylor indulged in a lengthy discussion upon the en-tire scope of the department, fertilizers tish hatching, etc. The resolution was then adopted. Mr. Harreil introduced a resolution to raise a committee of three to investigate the Department of Agriculture, in justification of that Department. Mr. Atkinson said a committee had already done that.

The resolution was then lost. The calendar was placed at the disposal of the Speaker, and the followng business was transacted: Bill to renew the charter of the Chapel Hill Iron Mountain Railroad Company, passed its readings.

Bill to regulate the time of holding the courts of the Eigth Judicial Dis-

At the 2,760th quarter she began to quicken her pace, and made the last fifteen quarters in less than four minutes each. The last quarter was reeled off in three minutes and three seconds, amidst a torrent of vociferous applause. At the conclusion of the previous quarter, Mr. Frank Z mmerman presented her with a hand-some gold medal on behalf of the Omynasium association.

Three Potter Committee Points

Washington Post. It is impossible for any intelligen: man to read the evidence given before the Potter commistee and be convinced of three things: First, that the electoral vote of Fiorida was offered to the Democrats and its purchase declined; second, that the Republicans did agree to pay for that vote; third, that Mr. Hayes has confirmed the contract by paying for that vote out of the public Treasury, the payment being made under the guise of salaries. That is all there is of it.

aspirants who desire the suffrages of their fellow-citizens, Those who are now claiming that it is nothing more than the cloak of demagoguism are really seeking to make it such by opposing the reforms and retrenchments, on the pledge of which they were elected. In itself, reform and retrenchment are nothing but the sheerest justice to the toiling masses, on whose shoulders rest at last the weight of all governmental burdens. It is the re-adjustment of those burdens to the gold basis upon which all other things have adjusted themselves.

The Legislature elected in a time of deep financial distress and fresh from a poverty-stricken people assembled filled with this idea of justice to their constituents, and a determination to execute it.

The General Assembly have found themselves hampered, or rather have allowed themselves to be, in the discharge of this plain duty. Honorable members have declared on the floor of the houses, as well as privately, that "Heaven and earth have been brought to bear to delay and cripple the movement to retrench and reform the public service." This was to some degree to have been expected. Many men, (but not all) when likely to suffer the loss of their positions, a reduction of their salaries, or of their appropriations, will be eloquent in demonstrating the impropriety of such proceedings as regards themselves, though admitting its justice probably as regards others.

The Legislature has been in session six weeks, vainly andeavoring to find some way to retiench without hurting anybody's feelings. The thing cannot be done in an unanimous way. "A straight road," Judge Pearson was in the habit of telling his law students, "cannot be cut through a forest without felling some trees." The retrenchment and reform road to popular gratitude and support cannot be made broad and straight without cutting down some salaries and offices.

The language of Governor Robinson. of New York, in his last message to the Legislature of that State, can not be too much commended; "official generosity is official crime. To be libera with other people's money is robbery."

The Legislature is here to administer a trust fund. Taey have no right to be liberal with it nor, as Governor Jarvis says in his message, to be liberal with so much as ten dollars of it. Those who expect to be liberal to office holders and railroad corporations out of the public monies can not expect that the cestui que trusts of this fund, the people will be other than indignant alike at the broken promises and the robbery.

The Legislature has been in session six weeks and the bill reducing the public printing is the only retrench. ment measure that has yet become a last passed the Senate. In its present shape it leaves the salaries of the State government and of the judiciary nearly $10 000 above what they were in 1860. Still the bill as it stands saves eighteen thousand dollars and is something to be deeply thankful for. It is to hoped that the House may remember the rates paid in 1860 and be more mindful of the just demands of their constituency.

Senators Graham, Hoyle and others, seem to have led the retrenchment movement in the Senate. Those who have opposed retrenchment and advocated high salaries and railroad aubsidies have worked more than they have spoken, but their record on the ayes and noes will be fortunately preserved for a longsuffering public in the journals.

In the House Messrs. Vaughan, York, Amis, Atkinson and others seem to have led the retrenchment movement. Messrs. Lewis and Cook nobly opposed the railroad subsidy bill which lately passed the House by a minority vote.

The General Assembly has but twelve more working days before it. In that time, however, the News hopes to be able to tell its readers of many just and great victories won for the tax-payers under the inscription which heads this article.

In every other State the retrenclment movement bears fruit. North Carolina demands at the hands of her representatives a substantial and not a shadowy relief. THE recuperative power of France is something marvelous. Since her late war she has paid Germany an indemnity of $1,000,000,000, has rebuilt her army on a grander scale than ever, and has made a steady advance in ev ry department of material prosperity. She has done this in spite of the fact that the balance of trade is largely against her and that she has no mines to develop and no large colonies to tax. Her citizens, however, are industrious and have learned the value of living within their means, and perhaps this accounts for her sudden recovery and good times. A republican form of goverament agrees with France, evi-

But the scoundrel who tries to hide his real character behind the mask of morality, who preys on the public purse while professing fervent zeal for the public welfare, the sneaking hypocrite who steals the livery of heaven to serve the devil in, will be detested at all times an i by all men.

THE Connecticut legislature proposes to tax such real estate as is owned but not occupied by religious organizations. An enormous amount of property owned but not occupied for religious and benevolent purposes, all over the country, is exempt from taxation. The subject is a very important one, and will soon take leading rank among the problems of statesmanship. The next census will show an immense increase of this untaxed real estate.

THE revisionists of the Bible have nearly completed their work, but are likely to find much opposition to the introduction of the new version. Bishop Coxe, of Buffalo declares against it, and affirms his belief that a majority of church members are opposed to the change. It also appears that the Bible society cannot print it unless their constitution is amended.

No Fence Law, &c.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH Feb. 17, 1879. Will you allow me through your columns to call the attention of he Grand Conceave, who meet from lay to day in the Halls of the Legislature in the Capitol of the State at Raleigh, o a few things the state of which I think ought to be remedied at once, or it may be we shall have to wait two years longer before anything can be

In the first place something should be done to make the No Fence Law the Law of the State, instead of as it is optional in counties, there is no question in the minds of sensible men, as to the benefit which would be the result of making such a law compulsory. No sensible man who owns stock of law. The Salaries and Fees bill has at any kind can in reason object to keep his stock, it is only those unreasonable men who want to own stock for some one else to keep, who would or could object to it. It is not necessary for me to go over the ground of cost to the farmer, mechanic, merchant, or even those who own but one acre of land to fence in the one, or ten, or one hundred acres, and for what is he put to such expence why to keep out other peo-ole's stock. I think if our Law Makers would look the thing fairly in the face they would be convinced of the justice and necessity of such a law. In the next place there is the Dog

Nuisance and it is a growing nuisance too, you cannot see a colored man or boy in town or country without one or two dogs which he claims to own, but which he does not keep, they are kept at the expense of other people, poor lean hungry curs, they are ready for either a sheep, a kid or a small pig.

If the Legislature have not grit enough in them to deal with so mean and useless a nuisance as the deg nuisance, I would advise all farmers to take the matter into their own hands. and whenever they have a sheep, or kid, or pig killed by the hungry curs, to charge it well with strychnine and let them eat their fill. In the last, but by no means the least place is the subject of the, Our Public Roads; the public roads of this State, (so far as the writer has seen them and from inquiry made of others from all over the State,) are a disgrace to the civilization of the Nine-teenth Century. From time to time I have read in your column articles on the monopolies of our railroads, but they are nothing in comparison to the monopolies, so to speak of our public roads at the present time and in fact at all times the public roads are dangerous to travel. There is scarcely a day passes without hearing of some unfortunate traveller either being stuck fast in the mud or broke down on the road. Such is the state of things that the people are afraid to travel after nightfall at the present time. Almost every wagon from the country with supplies for the city is obliged to have an extra horse or make the journey 2 or 3 days longer according to the distance from town they have to travel. Something ought and must be done to the public roads. If it pays the State to send convicts 250 miles up the country to build railroads, it will surely pay to put them to work on our public roads, there is plenty of material in most places to make good roads; the farmers in many places would be glad to get rid of surplus rock which if properly broken and pay his just creditor, and consequent-put on the roads would make them 75 ly his character goes to the wall at once or 100 per cent. better to travel after the first time working, look for example at the road made from the Penitentiary to the Hillsboro road near this city, it is some 4 or 5 years since that his light went out, "in the dark." Now road was made, and it has had as much gentlemen whatever is applicable to a heavy traffic as any piece of road in the State, and it will compare as favor-answer to the summons (although trary to law and any one so doing can be indicted and prosecuted for the same) and if every overseer was indicted for his section of read when it dicted for his section of road when it be delighted to see our worthy Govis dangerous to travel, there would al- ernor in a beautiful palace, but the ways be some one in court for this offence. Of course it would be hard on such men to have to pay fines and costs in such cases; but something must on done to improve the roads, they must either be kept in better condition under the present law, or the labor of convicts must be levied for the special purpose of making good public roads. Every one would be benefited by good The distance between the different counties and Raleigh, would be made less by good roads. On good roads the farmer with his cotton, flour or grain, would not be more than half the time, on the road he is at present, besides the wear and tear of horse, wagon &c.

If it is of so much importance to have good rail roads it is of equal importance to have good public roads, and I hope our law makers will take the matter up and do semething to improve our public roads. If nothing is done I would advise all who are compelled to travel to indict the overseer for all bad roads so as to rouse public opinion on the matter and compel the present law to be carried out or a new one made by whichhe can have good roads.

PRO BONO PUBLICO.

Deep River Navigation Company.

Correspondence of the News Снатнам Co., N. C., Feb. 18, '79. As there has been several communications upon the subject of the great River Improvement, I have concluded to state a few facts with regard to it, some of which have been omitted by your former correspondents. first, there has been at least one milion of dollars expended on C. F. & D. River by the State and individuals, which proved a dead loss to all concerned, the whole line having been abandoned by the State for fifteen years. During Gov. Caldwell's admin. stration he appointed a new board of directors and had the State's interest in the whole line sold under an act of the Legislature of 1861. Col. J. M. Heck became the purchaser for the sum of $1,200, with the condition he was to make the line navigable within a specijed time, which condition he has not, or never will comply with. The American Iron and S e !! Company have already expended three hundred thousand dollars patching up the line from Buckhorn to the Guif, for which they have not realized a dollar, and within he iast eighteen months one of the gates at Lockville washed out, consequently the boats can only run from Lockville to the Gulf. They have abandoned the work and entirely suspended operations, hence their proposition to transfer it again to the It is the opinion of gentlemen whose opinions are entitled to respect, that it would vet require another million of dollars to make the navigation permanent. Now which would be the most prudent, for the State to attempt to build up, this old dilapidated work which would necessarily be slow and road running directly through the heart of the coal and iron, crossing Dan river at Egypt, making direct communication with steamboat navigation at Fayetteville, which would give all the facilities necessary for transportation, besides the Raieigh and Augusta line crosses the same river at Lockville 12 miles below Egypt, making direct communication Raleigh, thence to the seaboard. your cerrespondent Justice says the managers have no bill or resolution before the legislature. He must have forgotten the resolution that was framed and concocted at the instance of a gentlemen who has been prominent in former speculations upon the river, which did not result favorable to the interest of the State, which the representatives from Chatham were requested to present to the different branches of the legislature. As a matter of courtesy they could not have done less, as they were represented as being an expression of public sentiment, the people being in convention tion assembled, when in fact I have no doubt there were not threemen in court house endorsed the sentiment of the resolution.

I have no besitancy in making the assertion that if the people of Chatham. Moore and Harnett were consulted not one in twenty, if one in fifty, would favor the State appropriating another dollar to the river improvement. As it is looked upon as being a public nuisance. It has destroyed many valuable farms, and has been the means of destroying many valuable lives. The citizens along the line would rejoice to have the privilege of removing the obstructions, so they could reclaim their land, and enjoy the uxury of the shad as of old, which they look upon as a greater boon than the pavigation.

Economic Views. Correspor dence of the News.

CHERRYVILLE, N. C., Feb. 17.

Please give me room in your columes to speak a word in regard to what should properly be classed as extravagance, It has frequently been said by members of the Legislature that they were a body of reform and much was expected of them, etc. It was a sad thought that much was expected and so very little revlized that has a tendency to relieve a down trods liberality when people or a State are able to extend it. We love charity and charitable institutions as much so as any people that ever lived before or since the flood; but there appears to be a difference of opinion as to where carity begins. Our opinion is that charity begins really at home. We believe that it is an admitted fact that honest men pay their honest d bts as to cut off expenses as far as possible even to the extreme, in extreme cases and by honest means, industry and economy, accumulate and save every cent possible and hand it over to his ust creditors, which will encourage the creditor to still indulge the debtor. Now reverse it and where are you. Live fine, dress fine, open leaks and new rat holes every day and what could be expected of such a debts or. It is not unreasonable to expect and belive that he was not trying to and he is without the character of an honest man and is utterly ruined fluancially and socially, and where is he. just where Moses was said to be when man is also applicable to a State under like circumstances. Our State is

A BOLD scoundrel, who makes no by those who either cannot or will not and honorable means and stop the stances and succumbs. Jacob Little leaks and rat holes instead of opining was a shining example of financial such expenditure in whiskey is con- more by new and extravagant appro- greatness brought low. Uncle Daniel State is in debt. Let us pay out first. The Asylum at Morganton is a consider erable item, also the contemplated asylum at Goldsboro will add to the millions already accumulated. Stop all the leaks as far as possible, and open new ones, would in retrenchment and reform, Repeal the fee law, allow all officers a reson. able salary for his services. All soldiers know that we lived often on half ration and sometimes even less and no pay. Cau't civil officers of our State work a while for half the pay they now get. Try them. We believe that the Government can be run as effectually at half the expense, as it now is, and tax- and at last meets with irreparable depayers everywhere demand a trial. What do tax-payers get for the products of their farms. We farm our little living and do not expect much and would only say "blessed are they that expect nothing. They shall not be deceived." Show your faith by your works. W. O. H.

What are the Salons Doing? Correspondence of the News.

WELDON, N. C., Feb. 19, 1879. People are begining to ask the ques-tion—and their interest seems to increase as the day for adjournment draws nigh-"What is the Legislature doing, and going to do?" "are they going to use up all their time ab u felling trees in this, that and the other creek, or selling whiskey at this, that and the other cross-roads, and other questions of comparative unimportance, while the public debt, the fence law, sheep protection and other things of great and general interest are dodged?" Our legislators are watched more closely than they seem to be aware of, and the onslaught upon Printing and Geology is a tub entirely out of proportion to the requirement of the present North Carolina whale. The Roanoke Light Infantry at their ast meeting held an election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of their lamented comrade, the late Lieutenant Faucett. The honor was very worthily conferred upon W. W. Hall, Esq. The company is in a prosperous condition, and several new members were added at their last meeting. They drill every Monday night.

Settle The State Debt.

Randelph Regulator. The weighty matters in which the State is deeply interested seem to be handled as carefully (if handled at all) as one would a hot potato. The State debt is an incubus to our growth and prosperity as a State, and it is being strongly influenced upon all th. t the present assemblage of Solons at Raleigh intend to dodge the responsibility of settling it. Our credit has already been severely damaged. And untold ruin stares us in the face unless something is done to restore our credit and give confidence to these capitalists who are standing waiting for an adjustment of our indebtedness so that they can confidently come among us est of the people at large. Each one is endeavoring to make such a record as will carry him back to the legislature. These times demand true statesmanship. Demagoguery and selfishness should be laid aside and no one who has been intrusted with the power to do our work in the legislature should spend one thought on his chances for recollection. A heavy and mighty reconstant the state of the child. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like the most of the middle recommended for Chills. I cheer mally recommended to gettine for such complaints 1 hink it is the greatest medicine in the worrs.

Respectfully, MRS. J. W. LLOYD. re-election. A heavy and mighty responsibility is on the shoulders of the present General Assembly, and we think it is high time they were marching up to it. Settle the State debt. Why let it hang for two years longer. Some one has to meet it and the present legislature would as well do so as the next. But we fear they will be satisfied with passing local option laws abolishing tax fees, criminal courts, &c., and shift the weightier matters to another legislature, and thus let our good old State be ground to the dust for two more long years.

There are other matters of great importance to be touched, but, just like the State debt, they will probably be passed over. The sheep law, the bell punch, the revenue, &c., all are important questions and the people would be more profited by their consideration than local laws or amendd ments to Battle's Revisal, and other laws of a trivial character. We have thus been plain because we believe the exigency of the times demand it. If, however, at the end our legislators do their duty well they will receive the proper commendation therefor. If they fail, then it rests with the people to select a set of men who will go to Raleigh and dare to legislate for the State and not make records to send them back again.

Jay Gould's Embarrassment. Brooklyn Eagle. For several weeks past, it has been intimated pretty freely in the news-papers that Mr. Jay Gould had got den people of a great State, with its himself into a tight place in his vast millions hanging over it. We love transactions; that this Napoleon of stock operations was about to meet with his Waterloo at last; that he was loaded down with Union Pacific railroad stock which he could not dispose of in open market, without, fatal sacrifice, and the other obligations with which he was burdened required the production of an amount of cash which could be forthcoming only by the sacrifice of his Union Pacific stock as aforesaid. fast as they are able, and a good and safe way to enable a man to pay out is Jay Gould and a syndicate of stock Jay Gould and a syndicate of stock operators by which Mr. Gould transferred to the laster one hundred thousand shares of Union Pacific stock. receiving for it common stock of North. western share for share, seems to confirm the story of Mr. Gould's difficulties although the results, doubtless involving reat peruniary loss to Mr. Gould, has not left him in the condition of some o is predecessors. He seems yet to be comfortably enough off for a man of small family, as he is still credited with the possession of three or four millions of dollars, quite sufficient to supply the necessaties of existence with the exercise of due economy in living. The history of Wall street is marked with just such cases as that of Mr. Gould, differing only in the degree of ruin which the mevitable catistrophe brings. The toperator who sticks to the business of stock gambling like Drew, with all his pious shrewdness after being the possessor of untold mil-lions, the patron of churches and theological seminaries and all that sort o thing at length made complete ship wreck and came down so low as to hardly be able to pay his board. The like examples are numerous. They are scat: tered all along the history of the street; but the trouble is, nobody seems to profit by them. What it is that keeps a great operator in the business after he has made his "pile" is not easy to say., Whether it be the gambler's infantation the habit of mind that makes the excitement of dangerous operations necessary to the enjoyment of life, or whether it be the vanity and self sufficiency which come of being admired and feared and famous, it makes no difference. The big operator stays feat. Mr. Gould, perhaps, may be an exception. Seeing more shrewdly than others could the ruin yawning before him, he evidently applied his energies to the task of extricating bimself in the best possible form, of retreating with the wreck of his forces before utter annihilation came. It is now announced that he will leave the street. He is tired and physically worn out. He must recuperate his vital powers.

John Sherman's Aspirations,

Washington Post. Political gossip includes the almost settled conviction that John Sherman. relying upon the success of resump-tion, and taking to himself the lion's share of credit therefor, is judiciously "pulling the wires" for his own nomination as Republican candidate for President in 1880. His announcement at Long Branch last summer that he publican candidate was a mere "blind" for his own selfish machinations. That he is using his official position as Secretary of the Treasury to advance his own chances, and increase his strength. is a matter of strong belief among po-liticians and other critical observers. He has already made a strong bid for the supp re of the Illinois delegati n n the mas neminating convenion by bring goea to him, in im. o a at offices, several pominent Illimis politicians, chief among whom re Assis . ant-Secretary Hawley, an ex m mbof Congress, and an aspirant for further honors at the hands of the people of Illinois, and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Raum, whose political aspirations are of even greater altitude than the casual observer would likely suppose. Now, another Congressman of Illinois, Burchard, is to have an important office, near to Sherman, as soon as his term expires next month.

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person about three gallons) passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. Bile is the natural purgative of the boweks, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Billousness, Jaundice, Chilis, Malai al Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow.

THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S

Celebrated American WORM SPECIFIC

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist,

DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure. IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY

in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant. The genuine DR. McLane's VER-MIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLane and Fleming Bros. on the

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Head-ache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression Dr. McLane's LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLane's LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
